

Outcome Report

Principles of Compliance

Date: May 9th, 2023

Location: Virtual on Zoom platform

Facilitated by:

Danah Abboud, Anti-corruption Programme Manager at the Pearl Initiative

Delivered to:

450 students from University of Bahrain

Key Takeaways:

- Delved into the fundamental principles of compliance, its critical role to corporate governance and how they contribute to fostering an ethical workplace environment that encourages a healthy speak-up culture.
- Explored how compliance shapes ethical workplaces and sets up future leaders for success.
- Equipped future leaders with the knowledge and skills they need to promote ethical workplaces and achieve success.

The students reported 88% satisfaction rate on the overall session including quality of speaker and event content.